

Shram Safalya Education Society
Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru
College of Social of Social work Amalner

Field Work Report 2020-21

Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru among the principles laid down by the university in social work education, field work has a unique importance along with it. Review of social work education in 1980. A total of 21 journalism courses are given in social work curriculum. Field work is a very important component in social work education.

- From the point of view of the students, knowledge is a very important factor Therefore, in the way of professional social work, it is adopted by the workers with the community, and so what activities are necessary for the students in the field of social work education.
- Through Village Camp, the camp is organized under the guidance of field work examiner. Village Camp plays an important role for the students by using this method in social work education.
- Educational field trip is done to enrich knowledge class through social work curriculum.
- Various campaigns Campaign are conducted on various social issues internally.
- Book examination, website examination and article examination are done in various ways to develop the intellectual knowledge of the students through field work in the college
- On the occasion of 2/10/ 2020 Mahatma Gandhi Jayanti, a whole week program was done through campus cleaning and public awareness field work.
- 11/10/2020 Through Google May, My Family My Responsibility Sahvichar Sabha was organized during the period of youth and the students were informed in the villages about how to take responsibility of their family.
- 15/10/2020 the vaccination program of children in Anganwadi was completed by the students with the direct participation of the students and the field work was completed by the students with local help.
- 15/10/2020 Care to be taken during Corona Epidemic Using Sanitizer Directly created public awareness about the importance of social distance and students conducted various programs in the area.

On the occasion of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel Jayanti on 31/10/2020 local price parents premises cleanliness and health inspection

1/11/2020 My Every Moment and Saskti Karate Fortnight Celebrated

On the occasion of 26/11/2020 Constitution Appreciation Day, volunteers spoke about the importance of the Constitution

- 14 /2/2021 Superstition elimination program in various 15 villages around Marwad Nagaon, public awareness was created through field work by performing street plays on the topic of superstition elimination.
- 23/2/2021 Public awareness program on community organization and community development was conducted on the occasion of Sant Gadgebaba Jayanti.
- 8/3/2021 various events were held under the field office to mark International Women's Day.
- 15th March to 15th April Immunization campaign was conducted to remove the vaccination among the people in the background of Covid.
- A tree plantation program was organized on the occasion of World Environment Day
- 6/6/2021 On the occasion of Shiv Rajyabhishek Day, programs were organized in the area
- A lecture program was organized through Google on the occasion of 21/6/2021 Yoga Day

