Learning Outcome of the Rural Camp –

The social work trainees got an experience of group living in and with the community, sharing their life and participating with them. They also applied social work methods into practice. This rural camp created opportunities for every student to develop a sense of team work. It helped them to break from self-circle or self-centered thinking created by them. They also learned to take responsibilities, gain management skills, gain skills in planning, organizing programs in the community and develop skills to conduct social surveys and analysis.
