Appeal Letter for parents.

You all know very well that, our college always made efforts in terms of student development to provide excellent employment opportunities to admitted students in the field of professional social work. With this purpose our college implemented students centric activities in co-ordination with various government and Non-government organizations. You are also one of the important components in the process of academic enrichment of the college. Accordingly, it is important to know your opinion about the curriculum, educational activities and other facilities of the college.

In this connection we appeal to all our respective parents to fill the enclosed feedback form and kindly submit your feedback.
