

Course outcomes for 2017-18 to 2019-20

Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru college of social work, Amalner runs BSW and MSW social work programs for this year 2017-18. All the students are made aware about the respective program and course outcomes in the beginning of the year, which are as below---

Bachelor of Social Work (BSW)

- 1) Students understand the importance of social work.
- 2) Develop skills and attitudes to solve their own and others problems.
- 3) Develop interpersonal skills.
- 4) Can understand the human behavior and the social environment
- 5) Students understand professional roles and their limits.
- 6) Develop ability to collect and analyze, organize and interpret any data.
- 7) Develop skills to work on problems in community.
- 8) Able to act according to social work ethics and code of conducts.
- 9) Students can bring theory into day today practice.
- 10) Can understand the critical things in the agencies or NGOs.
- 11) Can use all social work methods in day today life.

Master of Social Work (MSW)

- 1) Develop critical thinking ability.
- 2) Make use of social work professional values and techniques.
- 3) Can analyze and implement the social policies related to individuals, groups and communities.
- 4) Develop skills to work as social work educators and researchers.
- 5) Acquire effective oral and written communication skills.
- 6) Develop and acquire skills to work as program coordinators in government and non government organizations.
- 7) Develop skills to initiate actions to achieve organizational skills.
- 8) Develop skills of collaborations with clients for effective policy action.
- 9) Enhance capacity to work for human rights and social justice.

Value added courses under ordinance of 181 of the KBCNMU, Jalgaon

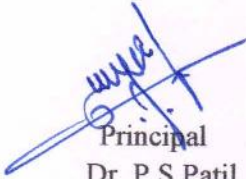

- 1) To inculcate & impart conceptual clarity among the students about processes and issues of PRA and Micro planning.
- 2) To update the learners about new trends in PRA and CAP.
- 3) To train the students as a counselors, to solve out problems of the society.
- 4) Develop skills of applications to real life situations.

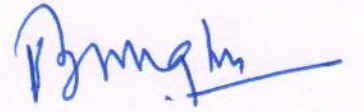

SHRAM SAFALYA EDUCATION SOCIETY'S
PANDIT JAWAHARLAL NEHRU COLLEGE OF SOCIAL WORK,

AMALNER

- 5) To train students as a community health workers.
- 6) Develop the knowledge of students so they can percolate the same in society.
- 7) Develop capacity of students for effective intervention in various problematic situations.
- 8) Develop research aptitude skills of application to real life situations.
- 9) To impart knowledge and understanding about CSR.
- 10) Develop necessary skills and competencies for managing socially responsible initiatives of the corporate.

Principal
Dr. P.S. Patil

IQAC Coordinator
Prof. Vijaykumar Waghmare